

Hi Caroline,

Unfortunately I have decided to discontinue my brief service. The role on the PRB is not quite what I was anticipating and is not in line with my expertise or interests. It is also a stretch to fit this in my schedule, especially considering I do not believe I am well-suited for the role. I will continue to attend meetings until a replacement can be found, including but not beyond meetings scheduled for June. I look forward to seeing everyone again next week unless I hear otherwise prior.
