

Andy

Sorry to have to come to the conclusion but I feel I must relinquish my position on the Active Living Committee. The demands of owning an Audiology practice in Waterville are too great and my attendance to the meetings has been poor. I feel you will be better served by someone that can be an active participant in the meetings.

I wish for great strides for the Committee and best of luck!

Jennifer Rancourt

Sent from my iPhone