

Freeport Sustainability Series Presents:

An update from the Governor's Climate Council

How Maine is Leading the Charge Against Climate Change

Monday, January 13 6:30-7:30 pm
Freeport Community Center - 53 Depot St.

This event will cover how climate change is affecting Maine, introduce Maine's new Climate Council, and give Freeport residents tips on how they can engage with climate policy in the State.

Our speaker Cassandra Rose is the Climate Council Coordinator with the Governor's Office of Policy Innovation and the Future. As a Senior Science Analyst, Cassandra has managed a policy and communications program for the American Geosciences Institute. Cassandra has more than ten years of academic climate research experience.

Daniel Kleban of Maine Beer Co., and a member of the Maine Climate Council, and Naomi Beal, Executive director of passivhausMAINE and member of the Council's Buildings, Infrastructure, and Housing working group, will also give remarks.

Complimentary local food and beer from Maine Beer Company will be provided.
